

Argument in Favor of Measure J

Measure J will complete the College Park Community by converting an aging dairy farm and a vacant industrial property into a quality residential neighborhood.

College Park residents strongly support YES on Measure J.

QUALITY of LIFE: Measure J will improve the quality of life for residents in the surrounding neighborhoods by eliminating unpleasant dairy cow odors and swarms of flies that can prevent families from enjoying outdoor living.

QUALITY HOMES: Measure J will finish the entrance to the College Park Community on Euclid Avenue by providing high quality single family homes from respected builder Lennar—including 1/3 acre lots and Executive Move Up homes.

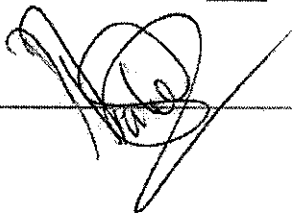

EQUESTRIAN TRAIL and PARKS—Measure J will make the zoning changes needed to complete the connections to the Chino Horse Trail—helping to maintain Chino’s equestrian heritage. It will provide 2 new neighborhood parks, attractive community monuments and upgraded neighborhood entries for visual appeal.

Measure J represents the highest standards of smart growth planning to enhance our community’s future while maintaining the family-friendly lifestyle that makes Chino such a great place to call home.
