Preamble

We the People of San Bernardino County, do establish this Charter to provide for more local control to serve the diverse communities of the largest geographic county in the United States by advancing freedom, equality, justice, health, safety, and prosperity with effective, transparent, accountable, innovative, and inclusive governance.

Article I: Name and Rights of the County

Section 101. County Powers.

San Bernardino County, as it now exists, is a body corporate and politic, and as such has and shall have all the powers that are now or may be hereafter specified by the Constitution and laws of the State of California, and by this Charter, and such other powers as are necessarily implied.

Section 102. County Authority.

The powers mentioned in the preceding section can be exercised only by the Board of Supervisors or by agents and officers acting under its authority or by the authority of law or of this Charter.

Section 103. County Name.

The corporate name shall be “San Bernardino County,” which must be thus designated in all actions and proceedings touching its corporate rights, properties, and duties. San Bernardino County’s boundaries and county seat shall remain as they are now, until otherwise changed by law.
Article II: Board of Supervisors

Section 201. Governing Body.

The Board of Supervisors is the governing body of San Bernardino County. The Board of Supervisors shall consist of five persons, hereafter identified as Members or Supervisors.

Section 202. Election.

Supervisors shall be elected by Supervisorial District. Each candidate for the office of Supervisor shall be an elector in the District which the candidate seeks to represent and shall be elected by the electors of such District. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, candidates shall be nominated and elected pursuant to the general law. The five Supervisorial Districts shall be apportioned by ordinance pursuant to the general law and this Charter. A Supervisor must reside in his or her District during the Supervisor’s incumbency.

Section 203. Term of Office.

At each general election, there shall be elected two or three Supervisors, as the case may be, for a term of four years beginning at noon on the first Monday after the first day of January next following their election and ending at noon on the first Monday after the first day of January four years thereafter. Supervisors shall be elected from the First, Third, and Fifth Supervisorial Districts in those years in which a presidential election is held, and Supervisors shall be elected from the Second and Fourth Supervisorial Districts in those years in which a gubernatorial election is held.

However, the term for the Supervisors elected from the First, Third, and Fifth Supervisorial Districts on either March 3, 2020, or November 3, 2020, shall commence at noon on Monday, December 7, 2020, and end at noon on Monday, January 6, 2025. The term for the Supervisors elected from the Second and Fourth Supervisorial Districts on either June 5, 2018, or November 6, 2018, shall end at noon on Monday, January 2, 2023.

The Board of Supervisors shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as are required by the Constitution of California, this Charter, and ordinance, and by the general law except as otherwise provided in the Constitution of California, this Charter, and any ordinance adopted pursuant to this Charter.

If the effective date of the appointment is no less than 130 days from the statewide general election in November of an even-numbered mid-term year of the vacant office, the appointment is provisional to the first Monday after the first day of January next following the election. When making the appointment, the remaining Members of the Board of Supervisors shall call for a special election for this office for the remaining term and shall order the special election to be consolidated with such statewide general election. candidate receiving the highest number of votes is elected.

If an election is required pursuant to this section and the date of such election as required by one of the preceding paragraphs of this section would be less than 180 less than the amount permitted under this paragraph.

Thereafter, the benefits provided to the Members of the Board of Supervisors shall be changed at such times and in such amounts as changes made to Exempt Group employees in the benefits category for department heads as provided by ordinance,

Where no comparable offices exist in a majority of named counties, the salary of the office shall be adjusted by the average of the percentage adjustments of the other county officers governed by this section. No provision of this amendment shall provide retroactive benefits. No salary adjustment shall be made on December 1, 1985, for any elected official whose salary has been adjusted since November 7, 1978, but such salaries shall be adjusted thereafter in accordance with this section. This section is intended to operate as a continuous application of the third paragraph of Section 1 of Article VI of the County Charter of 1913.
