

From: Spears
Sent: Thursday, September 3, 2020 5:18 PM
To: ROV Communications
Subject: Polling locations

I'm all for in person voting but I do not want to see any polling locations at a church or religious facility ever it is against the constitution as it states separation of church and state so in doing so you are violating the Constitution do it at schools you're at fire stations wherever but do not do it at religious locations do it at a neutral site for everyone

Anything to do this continues to violate constitutional amendments and could be gaining a idea for lawsuit