RECOUNT REQUESTED IN SAN BERNARDINO CITY ELECTION

Candidate in the February 7, 2012 election for San Bernardino City clerk, Amelia Sanchez-Lopez, today has requested a recount of the ballots cast in that race. When the Registrar of Voters completed the required canvass and certified the results of the election on February 13, making the numbers official, Sanchez- Lopez was defeated by three votes.

Under California election law, a recount may be requested within five days of the certification. The recount is open to public observation and according to the Registrar of Voters, Michael Scarpello, will begin Tuesday, February 28, at 9 a.m. It will take place at the Elections Office of the Registrar of Voters, 777 E. Rialto Ave, San Bernardino.

For more information about the recount process, visit the Elections Office website at www.sbcrov.com.
