Early Voting Expands for the 2014 Statewide General Election

Beginning on Monday, October 27, voters in San Bernardino County will have two more locations where they can vote prior to the November 4, 2014 Statewide General Election. Early voting centers will open at the Hesperia Branch Library and the Montclair Branch Library. An early voting center at the Elections Office of the Registrar of Voters has been open since October 6. With only a few voting days left before Election Day, the Elections Office encourages voters to stop by one of these three locations during their normal business hours if they would like to vote.

Voted mail ballots can also be dropped off at the three early voting locations. The locations will also have mail ballot drive-thru drop-offs so voters can deliver their ballots without having to get out of their cars. Elections Office staff will be stationed in the parking lots to accept voted mail ballots and distribute "I Voted" stickers.

"Our goal at the San Bernardino County Elections Office is to make voting more convenient, and we're hoping that voters take advantage of these early voting sites as well as our 56 mail ballot drop-off locations throughout the County," said San Bernardino County Registrar of Voters, Michael J. Scarpello.

In addition to the 56 county libraries and city clerk's offices, voters can also drop off their voted mail ballots at any one of the County's 413 polling places on Election Day. All mail ballot drop-off locations and polling places can be found on the Elections Office website at www.sbcountyelections.com.
